 - ii) an animal not securely restrained by a leash, held by a person capable of properly restraining the animal.

- (l) “Stray” means any dog or cat of which is evident by condition or knowledge to have no owner, after an investigation into ownership has been completed.

- (l) “Town” means the Town of Bow Island, or the area contained within the boundary thereof, as the context requires.

PART 1 – ANIMALS

- 3. No person shall do anything or omit doing anything where such act or omission has or may have the effect or causing or permitting the running at large of any animal within the town.

- 4. No person shall do anything or omit doing anything where such act or omission has or may have the effect of teasing, tormenting or annoying an animal.

- 5. Any owner, and any person having custody of or responsibility for an animal, which is suffering from an infectious physical condition:
 - a) Shall not permit such animal to be in any public place whether or not the animal is running at large.

 - b) Shall not keep or maintain such animal in contact with or in proximity to any other animal.

 - c) Shall keep the animal at all times locked in a secure place.

 - d) Shall report the matter of the animal’s infectious physical condition to the Town Office forthwith upon becoming aware of the situation.

 - e) No contravention of this section shall occur if the person is transporting an animal, suffering from an infectious physical condition, to a place where the animal may obtain veterinary treatment, and the provisions of this section do not apply to any person duly qualified and licensed to practice veterinary medicine within the town.

6. a) No person shall keep or harbor, within the limits of the Town, any animal other than a dog cat or a creature as referred to in section 2(a)(iv) without expressed written permission from council of their agent.
- b) No offence, as described in subsection a), shall be deemed to have been committed if a person keeps or harbors any animal other than a dog and that person:
 - i) is the holder of a valid and subsisting business license and the keeping of the animals is required for the performance of the business.
- c) Unless a person has received written permission from the Council, he shall not keep more than six (6) animals total in an individual household; for greater certainty six animals includes 3 animals allowed by this bylaw and three dogs allowed by the dog control bylaw being 2015 10

PART 2 – PROHIBITION AGAINST CAUSING DISTRESS

7. No Person shall cause or permit an animal of which the person is the owner or the person in charge of the animal to be or to continue to be in distress.
8. No person shall do anything or omit doing anything that causes an animal to be in distress.
9. A person who owns or is in charge of an animal:
 - a) must ensure that the animal has adequate food and water,
 - b) must provide the animal with adequate care when the animal is wounded or ill,
 - c) must provide the animal with reasonable protection from injurious heat or cold,
 - d) must provide the animal with adequate shelter, ventilation and space.
 - e) POWERS OF A BYLAW OFFICER UNDER THIS SECTION; if an animal is in distress and
 - i) The owner or person in charge of the animal does not forthwith take steps that will relieve its distress, or
 - ii) An Enforcement Officer is of the opinion, on reasonable and probable grounds, that the owner or person in charge of the animal is not likely to ensure that the animal's distress will continue to be relieved, or
 - iii) The owner or person in charge of the animal cannot be found immediately and informed of the animal's distress.

An Enforcement Officer may, take any action the officer considers necessary to relieve the animals distress, including taking custody of the animal in accordance section 12 of this bylaw and arrange for transportation, food, water, care, shelter and veterinary treatment for the animal, if necessary.

Anyone who fails, in the opinion of an Enforcement Officer, to meet the said standard of care set out in this section is guilty of an offence.
10. This section does not apply if the distress results from an activity carried on in accordance with the regulations or in accordance with reasonable and generally accepted practices of animal care, management, husbandry, hunting, fishing, trapping, pest control or slaughter.

PART 3 – CATS

11. a) No person shall keep or harbor more than three (3) cats aged six (6) months or more, but this subsection shall not apply to premises lawfully used for the care, maintenance or treatment of cats operated by and in charge of a licensed veterinarian or a licensed cat grooming or cat breeding business; or, to any premises lawfully used for the purpose of a cat show.
- b) No person shall do anything or omit doing anything where such act or omission has or may have the effect of causing or permitting the running at large of a cat within the Town.
- c) No person shall do anything or omit doing anything where such act or omission has or may have the effect of harming, teasing, tormenting or annoying a cat.
- d) The Enforcement Officer may obtain from a Provincial Court Judge a warrant to search within or upon any property, upon satisfying the Provincial Court Judge by Affidavit under oath there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe there has occurred or is occurring upon such property a contravention of the provisions of this bylaw. If, upon conducting such search, it appears that there is a contravention of this bylaw occurring upon laying a charge under this Bylaw the person conducting the search may forthwith remove, from the property and impound as evidence for trial, any number of animals in excess of the maximum number permitted under this bylaw.
- e) The provisions of the Criminal Code (Canada) respecting search warrants apply, with all necessary modifications, to this section.
- f) Unless in exigent circumstances, residents who privately trap cats or accept strays into their care, are responsible for transporting the cat(s) to an adoption or rescue facility on their own. The Enforcement Officer will accept and handle specific cases of cats dependant on discretion by the Enforcement officer.

PART 4 - POWERS OF THE ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

12. a) The Enforcement Officer may capture and impound any animal, which is running at large, appears to be suffering from an infectious disease, is in distress, or in the opinion of the Enforcement Officer is a stray animal, or
- c) When an animal has been in the pound for seventy-two consecutive (72) hours or more and the owner of the animal has not reclaimed it, or it is determined the animal is a stray, the Enforcement Officer may;
- i) Rehome the animal;
- ii) Destroy the animal, or
- ii) Retain the animal in the Pound for such further period of time as the Enforcement Officer may think advisable in the circumstances.
- d) Where the owner of an impounded animal has advised the Enforcement Officer that the owner has no further interest in the animal, the Enforcement Officer may rehome or adopt out the animal, destroy the animal, notwithstanding that the animal may have been in the Pound less than seventy-two hours. Costs may be incurred by owner per Schedule "B"

- e) For the purpose of calculating the length of time an animal has been impounded the 72 hour time frame shall start at 8:00am on the day following impoundment; Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory holidays shall be included in the calculation.

PART 5 – GENERAL

- 13. a) A person who contravenes any provision of this bylaw is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to pay a fine of not less than seventy five dollars ($75.00) and not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500.00) or in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.
 - b) Payment of any fine or imprisonment for any period of time, pursuant to the provisions of this bylaw, shall not relieve any person from the obligation to pay any fees, charges or costs for which that person is liable under the provisions of the bylaw.
 - c) Payment of any fine or imprisonment for any period as provided for in this bylaw shall not relieve any person from any civil liability whatsoever, which may arise by reason of that person's contravention of any provision of this bylaw.
14. Where an Enforcement Officer believes on reasonable and probable grounds that an offence has taken place consisting of a breach or a contravention of the Bylaw, he may commence proceedings by issuing either a summons/violation ticket (Part 2) or an offence notice violation ticket (Part 3) in accordance with the provisions of the Provincial Offence Procedure Act, R.S.A. Chapter P-34. And, proceedings under part 2 or part 3 shall provide for a voluntary payment in lieu of prosecution of said offence.
15. No person shall do anything or omit doing anything where such act or omission has or may have the effect of obstructing, hindering or impeding an Enforcement Officer from doing anything in furtherance of the carrying out or enforcement of any provision of this bylaw.
16. In this bylaw the singular may be read as though the plural were expressed, and the masculine gender may be read as though the feminine or neuter were expressed, wherever the context is applicable.
17. It is the intention of Council each separate provision of this bylaw shall be deemed independent of all other provisions, and it is further the intention of the Council if any provisions of this bylaw be declared invalid for any reason by a Court of competent jurisdiction, then all other provisions of this bylaw shall remain valid and enforceable.
18. The document attached hereto and marked Schedule "A" is hereby incorporated into and form part of this bylaw.
