ISLAND 100 Initiative

North Forty Mile Recreation Society

The Island 100 Initiative aims to enlist 100 community members annually to contribute $100 each, resulting in a prompt accumulation of $10,000. This fund is intended to support the Town of Bow Island in enhancing recreational facilities or undertaking recreational refurbishment projects within the community.

Some examples could be new/ upgraded walking paths, Kale Porteous Splash Park, Bow Island Swimming Pool, Bow Island Arena, Bert Knibbs Ball Park, new Playgrounds, upgrades at Centennial Park, upgrades to Westview greenspace and more. As a member of the Island 100 Initiative Group, members will receive quarterly email updates on fund allocation, chosen projects, and project completion.

Please email Kaylee, the North Forty Mile Recreation Society Secretary to get involved recreation@bowisland.com
